

Skilled Laborer

Company Information

Hatcher Construction is a growing, Alaska family owned, and operated business dedicated to providing quality construction services throughout Alaska. We specialize in all areas of refurbishment and new build projects, predominately within the mining and logistics industries.

Description

Responsible for basic wall framing, sheetrock, trim, metal roofing, window/door replacement and siding.

Opportunity

We are willing to train an applicant that demonstrates the desire to learn construction skills. Good work ethic and attendance are required. You will be training with a talented, skilled craftsman and he will provide you training that you will use over your lifetime personally and professionally. Hatcher Construction provides growth opportunities within the company. This position is seasonal.

Skills & Requirements

- Three years' experience in residential/commercial construction
- Able to function as a polite and cooperative team member
- Basic math skills
- Detailed oriented
- Able to work independently
- Follow all health and safety standards
- Lift up to 85 lbs
- Must pass drug and alcohol screening

Pay

$20-$25 DOE
6 days/week 10 hours/day

606 West Fern
Palmer, AK 99645

Hatchers.ak@gmail.com

